The Jeeah's Hope Story

Jeeah Ellie Carlisle was adopted from South Korea by Chance and Emily in 2009. At just 20 months of age, precious Ellie tragically passed away. Grieving her death, the Carlisles went to an adoption support conference, where they met Skip and Ashley Perkins – another local adoptive family seeking resources to help them parent their emotionally troubled son.

Together, the Carlisles and the Perkins were led by God to establish a ministry in Jeeah's name to provide resources, connection, and support for adoptive and foster families across the Chattahoochee Valley.

Since the ministry's inception in 2010, Jeeah's Hope has participated in the adoption of 93 children, mobilizing more than $984,000 in adoption funding and support! Besides financial assistance, Jeeah's Hope also provides resources and specialized training for parents, Christ-centered connectational events for families, and ongoing pastoral care and counseling support, post-adoption.

How is Jeeah's Hope funded?

We have three sources of funding and a collaborative ministry model that allow us to provide exceptional services to more than 200 local adoptive and foster families, while maintaining a small staff and a lean budget:

#1

Our monthly Operational Expenses are all fully covered by a generous corporate partner!

#2

We have a small Annual Ministry Budget that is funded by individual, family, and business donations.

#3

We have a modest endowment that fuels our adoption matching grant programs. This fund is professionally managed by a national Christian investment firm.

A Collaborative Ministry Model

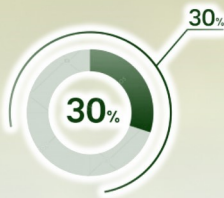

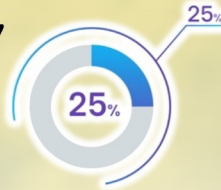

Each adoption and foster support ministry has its own areas of specialty. None of us can do it all alone, but we can do it all together by God's enabling grace!

Jeeah's Hope joyfully partners with other ministries and churches to offer a wide array of services and support to adoptive/foster families. By collaborating, we reduce duplicating services, and we can each operate in our areas of strength to give our collective best to these heroic families!

TESTIMONIALS

“There were many moments when we struggled to understand how the needed finances would come together for our international adoption. Jeeah’s Hope partnered with us through their matching grant program, providing a much-needed incentive for others to come alongside us financially.”

–JASON, adoptive Dad

“This group has been such a blessing to me! I count down the days to our next meeting. If foster/adoption is on your heart, please come join us. I promise you will leave feeling refreshed, loved, and blessed.”

–MELISSA, adoptive Mom

“For us, Jeeah’s Hope is a true Holy Spirit ‘come alongside’ ministry, walking with families – including ours – who appreciate knowing they’re not alone as they answer the call to foster care and adoption.”

–WILL, adoptive Dad

“Jeeah’s Hope gathers, encourages, and strengthens parents for the journey they sacrificially chose when they said ‘yes’ to foster care and adoption. Jeeah’s Hope has been faithfully ministering this encouragement to families who have adopted and cared for children in the foster system for years.”

He tends

HIS FLOCK LIKE A SHEPHERD:

He gathers

THE LAMBS IN HIS ARMS AND
CARRIES THEM CLOSE TO HIS HEART;

He gently leads

THOSE THAT HAVE YOUNG.
